Mr. AYCRIGG, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Jonathan P. Horton, report:

That the petitioner having proved that, while in the service of the United States and in the line of his duty, he received an injury that has disabled him one-half, the committee recommend that he be placed on the pension roll at the rate of one-half the pay of a private. They report a bill.
